

COMPARATIVE PROFESSIONAL PEDAGOGY

THE AIM AND THE SCOPE OF THE JOURNAL

The main aim of the journal is the publication of research carried out by scientists and researchers of Ukraine and the world in the field of comparative pedagogy; presentation of the latest studies of modern processes taking place in educational field worldwide; approbation of scientific endeavours of young researchers (post-graduates) in the field of pedagogical science with consideration of foreign experience.

The scope of the journal:

- theoretical and methodological framework of comparative pedagogical studies;
- modern strategies and trends of education development in the global dimension;
- foreign experience of education system enhancement;
- comparative analysis of educational processes taking place in national and foreign educational institutions (from primary to post graduate level);
- theory and practice of organizing learning, cognitive, research and self-study activities in different foreign educational institutions;
- search for effective ways of scientific study and improvement of modern processes taking place in the pedagogy and global educational policy;
- analysis and generalization of positive experience of foreign countries in the field of education;
- methodical aspects of foreign language training in the education systems of leading countries.